Who are we?

We are three generations of men coming together for breakfast, fellowship, prayer and learning.

We asked the guys why they get out of bed for a 7:00 AM gathering every Thursday. These were some of the answers we got:

- "It's where I practice being Christian...breaking bread, praying together, loving one another"
- "It's where I go to better understand scripture with outstanding professors making presentations on history, philosophy, theology and biblical studies"
- "It's my time away from the hustle bustle of work, and just the busyness of life"
- "It's where I go for fellowship which is different from Sunday worship-it's small group fellowship"
- "Dr. Modica makes the distinction between practice vs. participation — Small group is participation. It's the blocking and tackling of Christian fellowship"
- "This is a big church so a small group setting is where we get to know one another, support one another, and to learn to pray for and with one another"
- "It's my mid-week spiritual booster shot"
- "I regard this hour each week as 'my time'"
- "It's where I go to get a hot breakfast"
- "It's our time to think, reflect, discuss, learn and pray as we seek a bit of timeless wisdom and guidance in a fast paced and rapidly changing world"
